

Debt Collection Activities Study

This survey is being conducted in order to build the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau's knowledge of the operational costs of collecting debt that is in default. The responses to the questions that you provide will help the CFPB better understand the burden of potential regulations affecting the debt collection industry. Responses to any and all questions are voluntary and will not be used for supervisory or enforcement purposes.

Below is a list of questions about the operation of your business and your costs as they relate to collecting debts. Upon return of this questionnaire, we may follow up with you to ask if you are willing to discuss some of these topics in more detail.

We are sending this survey to a broad range of companies, and some questions may not be applicable to your business. If a question is not applicable to you, please leave the answer blank. If you have any questions about any part of this document, please email at cfpb_dcstudy@cfpb.gov or call Rachel Ross at (202) 435-7635. Once complete, please submit by clicking on the "Submit Form" button at the top of this form. Alternatively, you may return this survey by email to cfpb_dcstudy@cfpb.gov or by mail to CFPB, Attn: Rachel Ross, 1700 G Street NW, Washington, DC 20552-0003.

Privacy Notice: 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(e)(3): The information you provide through your responses to Consumer Financial Protection Bureau ("CFPB") will assist in gathering information to understand the costs of debt collection activities in order to analyze the potential burden to industry of the Bureau's debt collection proposals.

The CFPB will obtain first name, last name, business email address, and business phone number from participants.

Information collected will be treated in accordance with the System of Records Notice ("SORN"), CFPB.022, <https://www.federalregister.gov/articles/2012/11/14/2012-27582/privacy-act-of-1974-as-amended>. This information will not be disclosed as outlined in the Routine Uses for the SORN. Direct identifying information will only be used to facilitate the interview and will be kept private except as required by law.

This collection of information is authorized by Pub. L. No. 111-203, Title X, Sections 1013 and 1022, codified at 12 U.S.C. §§ 5493 and 5512.

Participation in this exercise is voluntary. You are not required to participate or share any identifying information, including first name, last name, business email address and business phone number, and you may withdraw participation at any time. However, if you do not include the requested information, you may not participate in the interview.

Paperwork Reduction Act Statement: According to the Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, an agency may not conduct or sponsor and, notwithstanding any other provision of law, a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a valid OMB control number. The OMB control number for this collection is 3170-0032. It expires on 02/29/2016. The time required to complete this information collection is estimated to average approximately 60 minutes per response. Responding to this collection of information is voluntary. Comments regarding this collection of information, including the estimated response time, suggestions for improving the usefulness of the information, or suggestions for reducing the burden to respond to this collection should be submitted to Bureau at the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (Attention: PRA Office), 1700 G Street NW, Washington, DC 20552, or by email to PRA@cfpb.gov.

Also, a federal law called the Privacy Act directs how the federal government treats the information contained in your answers to these questions. To understand how and when your information may be shared, you can read the Privacy Act Statement on the CFPB's website at www.consumerfinance.gov. The CFPB will also treat the information received consistent its confidentiality regulations at 12 CFR § 1070.

If the responses you provide to this study are requested under the Freedom of Information Act, the Bureau will withhold such responses to the extent that it determines that they constitute trade secrets or confidential commercial information that you would not ordinarily make public. The Bureau will deem any such trade secrets or confidential commercial information to be "confidential information" for purposes of the Bureau's confidentiality rules at 12 CFR § 1070.40 et seq.
